

Why the modern general counsel is now a critical strategic advisor

To remain relevant, today's modern general counsel (GC) must embrace innovation to drive optimal business outcomes.

Challenges facing the modern GC:

Decision-making with senior executives

Top 3 reported areas GCs are most focused on to improve their departments:

Managing risk proactively instead of reactively

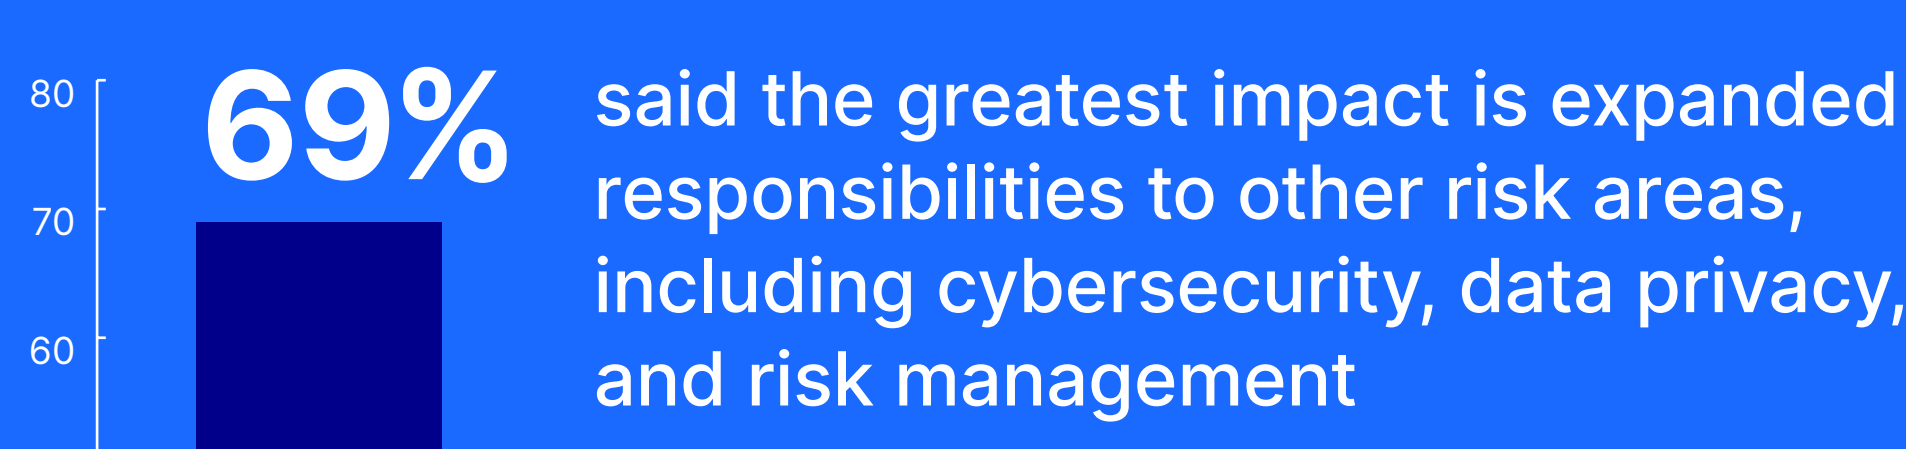

Keeping up with new regulations and meeting regulatory demands

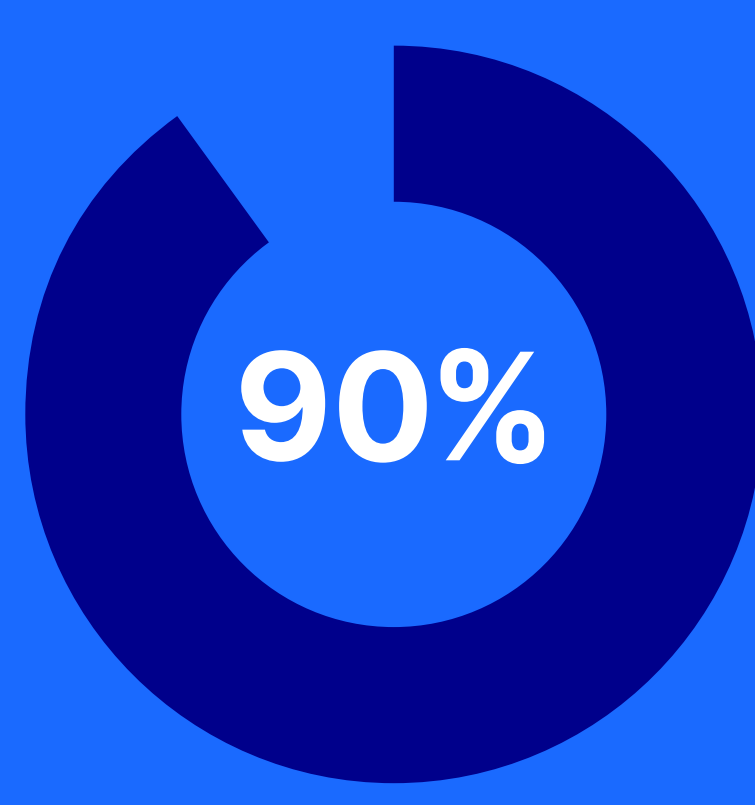

Managing increased workload to avoid delays and reduced quality

Shifting expectations and responsibilities

Need for technology

90% indicated that technology is important or critical to meet legal strategy objectives and challenges

Technology to shape the modern practice of law

Drive business outcomes with a composable, intelligent legal platform and value-add services

Increase legal department relevancy by empowering smarter business decisions

Optimize operations by maximizing ROI and minimizing risk

Source: Corporate Counsel Business Journal, The Modern General Counsel Survey. (2023)

Learn what your legal peers are doing to modernize the enterprise practice of law

Download the position paper

opentext.com